

Eni to complete seventh Zohr gas processing station in July

Eni will complete the Zohr field's seventh natural gas treatment plant in Port Said's El Gameel region in July to raise output to 2.7 bcf/d from 2.3 bcf/d currently, an unnamed industry source tells the domestic press. The Italian company has also completed drilling the tenth well, the source says.